NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2020
(Unaudited)
Amounts in thousands, except for per-share data

NOTE 1. - NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation - The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments consisting of normal recurring accruals considered necessary for a fair and non-misleading presentation of the financial statements have been included.

Operating results for the six months ended June 30, 2020 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2020. The balance sheet as of December 31, 2019 has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements at that date but does not include all the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements.

These interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the December 31, 2019 audited consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 11, 2020.

Principles of Consolidation - The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of 22nd Century Group, Inc. (“22nd Century Group”), its three wholly-owned subsidiaries, 22nd Century Limited, LLC (“22nd Century Ltd”), NASCO Products, LLC (“NASCO”), and Botanical Genetics, LLC (“Botanical Genetics”), and two wholly-owned subsidiaries of 22nd Century Ltd, Goodrich Tobacco Company, LLC (“Goodrich Tobacco”) and Heracles Pharmaceuticals, LLC (“Heracles Pharma”) (collectively, “the Company”). All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

Nature of Business - 22nd Century Group, Inc. is a plant biotechnology company specializing in technology that allows (i) for the level of nicotine and other nicotinic alkaloids in tobacco plants to be altered through genetic engineering and modern plant breeding and (ii) the levels of cannabinoids in hemp plants to be decreased or increased through genetic engineering and modern plant breeding. Goodrich Tobacco and Heracles Pharma are business units for the Company’s potential modified risk tobacco products. NASCO is a federally licensed tobacco products manufacturer, a subsequent participating member under the tobacco Master Settlement Agreement (“MSA”) between the tobacco industry and the settling states under the MSA and operates the Company’s tobacco products manufacturing business in North Carolina. Botanical Genetics is a wholly-owned subsidiary of 22nd Century Group that performs research and development related to the Company’s hemp business.

Reclassifications - Certain items in the 2019 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2020 classification. During the second quarter of 2020, the Company broke out research and development expense into two lines: (i) Research and development and (ii) Research and development—MRTP in the operating expense section of the Company’s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss. The comparative classifications for 2019 have been reclassified to conform to the new presentation.

COVID-19 Pandemic – The COVID-19 pandemic has caused some disruption to our business and poses a risk to our future business, including delays by third party providers of goods or services to our business, interruptions to our sales, research and development, and administrative activities, and disruptions to our manufacturing operations. Similarly, state or federal authorities may also be affected in their capacity or capability to operate as normal and may impact the timeline of product authorizations which may disrupt our business plans.

Our Williamsville, NY corporate re-opened in June and our R&D laboratory in Buffalo, NY re-opened in May and are currently operating under strict safety protocols in accordance with New York State’s reopening guidelines. These protocols include physical distancing, mandatory face coverings, disinfection of surfaces, and other health and safety measures. We continue to encourage remote work arrangements by any and all employees where job duties permit. Although our laboratory in Buffalo reopened in May, some of our external research and development partners were either closed or operating on a modified or limited schedule during the height of the pandemic. The temporary closure of our laboratory and the interruption to our workflow related to COVID-19 have impacted our internal and external laboratory research operations. Our executive leadership team and staff are continuously monitoring this ever-evolving situation and its impacts on our business.

Our NASCO production facility in North Carolina remains open, having been classified as an essential business as it is part of the supply chain for grocery stores and convenience stores. Despite the pandemic, we have been able to fulfill sales orders in a timely manner. The safety and well-being of our employees remains a top priority and we to continue monitor and operate in line with local, state, and federal safety guidelines. An outbreak at our production facility, or disruption in our supply chain, could cause us to slow or temporarily cease our manufacturing operations.

We will continue to monitor the local, state and federal guidance regarding our business practices.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments - The Company's financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, short-term investment securities, accounts receivable, investments, a convertible note receivable, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and notes payable. Other than for cash equivalents, short-term investment securities, certain investments, and convertible note receivable, fair value is assumed to approximate carrying values for these financial instruments, since they are short term in nature, they are receivable or payable on demand, or had stated interest rates that approximate the interest rates available to the Company as of the reporting date. The determination of the fair value of cash equivalents, short-term investment securities, investments, and convertible note receivable are discussed in Note 6.

Investments - Under ASU 2016-01, equity securities are recorded at fair value, with changes in fair value recorded through the statement of operations. Equity securities without a readily determinable market value are carried at cost less impairment, adjusted for observable price changes in orderly transactions for an identical or similar investment of the same issuer. The Company considers debt instruments as available-for-sale securities, and accordingly, all unrealized gains and losses incurred on the short-term investment securities (the adjustment to fair value) are recorded in other comprehensive income or loss on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.

Stock Based Compensation - The Company uses a fair-value based method to determine compensation for all arrangements under which Company employees and others receive shares, restricted stock units or options to purchase common shares of the Company. Stock based compensation expense is recorded over the requisite service period based on estimates of probability and time of achieving milestones and vesting. For accounting purposes, the shares will be considered issued and outstanding upon vesting or risks of forfeiture expiring.

Income Taxes - For interim income tax reporting, due to a full valuation allowance on net deferred tax assets, no income tax expense or benefit is recorded unless it is an unusual or infrequently occurring item. The tax effects of unusual or infrequently occurring items, including changes in judgment about valuation allowances and effects of changes in tax laws or rates, are reported in the interim period in which they occur.

NOTE 2. - INVENTORY

Inventories are valued at the lower of historical cost or net realizable value. Cost is determined using an average cost method for tobacco leaf inventory and raw materials inventory and standard cost is primarily used for finished goods inventory. Inventories are evaluated to determine whether any amounts are not recoverable based on slow moving or obsolete condition and are written off or reserved as appropriate. Inventories at June 30, 2020 and December 31, 2019 consisted of the following:

	June 30, 2020	December 31, 2019
Inventory - tobacco leaf	$ 1,191	$ 1,178
Inventory - finished goods
Cigarettes and filtered cigars	212	106
Inventory - raw materials
Cigarette and filtered cigar components	1,466	1,082
Less: inventory reserve	(100)	(100)
	$ 2,769	$ 2,266

NOTE 3. - MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

Machinery and equipment at June 30, 2020 and December 31, 2019 consisted of the following:

	Useful Life	June 30, 2020	December 31, 2019
Cigarette manufacturing equipment	3 or 10 years	$ 4,896	$ 4,870
Office furniture, fixtures and equipment	5 Years	162	152
Laboratory equipment	5 Years	125	125
Leasehold improvements	6 Years	263	257
Less: accumulated depreciation		(2,597)	(2,284)
Machinery and equipment, net		$ 2,849	$ 3,120

Depreciation expense was $157 and $313 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, respectively ($147 and $282 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2019, respectively).

NOTE 4. - RIGHT-OF-USE ASSETS, LEASE OBLIGATIONS, AND OTHER LEASES

On January 1, 2019, the Company adopted ASU 2016-02, Subtopic ASC 842, Leases (the “new guidance”) and elected to use the practical expedient which allowed the Company to carry forward the historical lease classifications of the existing leases as of adoption. Our lessee right of use (ROU) assets represent our right to use an underlying asset and our lease liabilities represent our obligation to make lease payments.

The Company leases a manufacturing facility and warehouse in North Carolina, a corporate office space in Williamsville, New York, and a laboratory space in Buffalo, New York. The ROU assets and lease liabilities for these operating leases are recognized as of the commencement date at the net present value of the fixed minimum lease payments for the lease term. The discount rate used is the interest rate implicit in the lease, if available, or the Company’s incremental borrowing rate which is determined using a base line rate plus an applicable spread.

The following table summarizes the Company’s discount rate and remaining lease terms:

Weighted average remaining lease term in years	2.4
Weighted average discount rate	4.8 %

Future minimum lease payments as of June 30, 2020 are as follows:

2020	$	173
2021		324
2022		92
2023		88
2024		15
Total lease payments		692

Total	$	651

NOTE 5. – INVESTMENTS & CONVERTIBLE NOTE RECEIVABLE

Investment in Panacea Life Sciences, Inc.

On December 3, 2019, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement with Panacea Life Sciences, Inc. (“Panacea”) for $13,297 in exchange for a 15.8% ownership interest. The Company’s investment consists of three instruments: shares of Series B preferred stock (“preferred stock”); a convertible note receivable; and a warrant (“stock warrant”) to purchase additional shares of Series B preferred stock, to obtain 51% ownership of Panacea, at an exercise price of $2.344 per share. The convertible note receivable has a term of five years, bears interest of 10% per annum, and can be converted to shares of Series B preferred stock at the Company’s discretion. The preferred stock carries an annual 10% cumulative dividend, compounded annually, and has an implicit put option after the fifth anniversary date so long that the stock warrants have not been exercised. The stock warrant may be exercised at any time after the fifth anniversary date and would be accelerated if Panacea achieves certain sales targets for two consecutive years. The Series B preferred stock also has equity preferences in the event of a liquidation, sale, or transfer of Panacea assets.

The convertible note receivable and the preferred stock investment are considered available for sale debt securities with a private company that is not traded in active markets. Since observable price quotations were not available at acquisition, fair value was estimated based on cost less an appropriate discount upon acquisition. The discount of each instrument is accreted into interest income over the respective term as shown within the Company’s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss. See Note 6 for additional information on these fair value measurements. The stock warrant was recorded at its cost basis in accordance with the practical expedient under ASU 2016-01.

In accordance with ASC 326-30-35 and ASC 321-35-3, credit loss risk of available-for-sale securities and impairment risk of investments recorded at cost should be evaluated if negative indicators are present. During the first six months of 2020, the cannabidiol (CBD) industry has experienced an overall decline due to increased competition, FDA regulation uncertainty, and continued uncertainty from COVID-19—all relevant indicators for the valuation of our Panacea investment. Based on our assessment, we determined that no credit loss existed for the available-for-sale debt security instruments as of June 30, 2020. As such, we concluded that the recorded value aligns with the expected cash flows of the instruments.

However, we determined that the recorded cost basis of the stock warrant exceeded its fair value due to the negative macroeconomic indicators mentioned above. As such, the Company recognized an impairment charge of $1,062 during the three and six months ended June 30, 2020.

NOTE 6. – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS AND SHORT-TERM INVESTMENTS

FASB ASC 820 - “Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures” establishes a valuation hierarchy for disclosure of the inputs to valuation used to measure fair value. This hierarchy prioritizes the inputs into three broad levels as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 inputs are quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets or inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly through market corroboration, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs based on the Company’s own assumptions used to measure assets and liabilities at fair value.

A financial asset’s or a financial liability’s classification within the hierarchy is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

The following table presents information about our assets and liabilities measured at fair value as of June 30, 2020 and December 31, 2019, and indicates the fair value hierarchy of the valuation techniques the Company utilized to determine such fair value:

	Fair Value June 30, 2020

Money market mutual funds are valued at their daily closing price as reported by the fund. Money market mutual funds held by the Company are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the SEC that generally transact at a stable $1.00 Net Asset Value (“NAV”) representing its estimated fair value. On a daily basis the fund’s NAV is determined by the fund based on the amortized cost of the funds underlying investments.

Corporate bonds are valued using pricing models maximizing the use of observable inputs for similar securities.

The investment in the Aurora stock (ACB) warrants is measured at fair value using the Black-Scholes pricing model and is classified within Level 3 of the valuation hierarchy. The unobservable input is an estimated volatility factor of 141% and 83% at June 30, 2020 and December 31, 2019, respectively. Therefore, changes in market volatility will impact the fair value measurement of our ACB investment.

A 20% increase or decrease in the volatility factor used at June 30, 2020 would have the impact of increasing or decreasing the fair value measurement of the stock warrants by approximately $175. A 20% increase or decrease in the volatility factor used at December 31, 2019 would have the impact of increasing or decreasing the fair value measurement of the stock warrants by approximately $260.

The Panacea convertible note receivable and the preferred stock investment are considered available-for-sale debt securities with a private company that is not traded in active markets. Since observable price quotations were not available, fair value was estimated based on cost less an appropriate discount upon acquisition. The discount of each instrument is accreted into interest income over the respective term and will adjust the amortized cost basis of the investments.

Fitch, a resident of Essex County Massachusetts, filed a Complaint against the Company, the Company’s then Chief Executive Officer, Henry Sicignano III, and the Company’s then Chief Financial Officer, John T. Brodfuehrer, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York entitled: Ian Fitch, Individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v. 22nd Century Group, Inc., Henry Sicignano III, and John T. Brodfuehrer, Case No. 2:19-cv-00553. The Complaint filing alleges that the Plaintiff Mr. Fitch purchased shares of the Company’s common stock. Sicignano and Brodfuehrer are liable for the allegedly false statements pursuant to Section 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act. The Complaint seeks declaratory relief, unspecified money damages, and attorney’s fees and costs.

On March 25, 2019, Plaintiffs’ counsel in the Fitch litigation filed a motion in both the Fitch and Bull actions: (1) proposing Joseph Noto, Garden State Tire Corp, and Stephens Johnson for Mr. Fitch as purportedly representative plaintiffs, (2) moving to consolidate the Fitch litigation with the Bull litigation, and (3) seeking to be appointed as lead counsel in the consolidated action. Plaintiffs’ counsel in the Bull litigation filed and then withdrew a comparable motion seeking to consolidate the cases and be appointed as lead counsel.

On May 28, 2019, the plaintiff in the Fitch case voluntarily dismissed that action. On August 1, 2019, the Court in the Bull case issued an order designating Joseph Noto, Garden State Tire Corp, and Stephens Johnson as lead plaintiffs.

On September 16, 2019, pursuant to a joint motion by the parties, the Court in the Bull case transferred the class action to federal district court in the Western District of New York, where it remains pending as Case No. 1:19-cv-01285.

Plaintiffs in the Bull case filed an Amended Complaint on November 19, 2019. Sicignano and Brodfuehrer for the allegedly false statements pursuant to Section 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act. The Amended Complaint seeks to certify a class, and unspecified compensatory and punitive damages, and attorney's fees and costs.

On January 3, 2020, the Court reassigned the Bull case to Judge John L. Sinatra, also in the Western District of New York.

On January 29, 2020, the Company and Messrs. Sicignano and Brodfuehrer filed a Motion to Dismiss the Amended Complaint. On March 30, 2020, Plaintiffs filed a brief in opposition to the motion to dismiss. We then filed our final reply brief on April 29, 2020. On July 31, 2020, the Court heard oral arguments on our motion to dismiss and we are awaiting their decision.

We believe that the claims are frivolous, meritless and that the Company and Messrs. Sicignano and Brodfuehrer have substantial legal and factual defenses to the claims. We intend to vigorously defend the Company and Messrs. Sicignano and Brodfuehrer against such claims.

On August 15, 2019, the case was consolidated with the Mathew case identified below and stayed. We believe that the claims are frivolous, meritless and that the Company and the individual defendants have substantial legal and factual defenses to the claims. We intend to vigorously defend the Company and the individual defendants against such claims.

On February 11, 2019, Stephen Mathew filed a shareholder derivative claim against the Company, the Company's then Chief Executive Officer, Henry Sicignano III, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, John T. Ms. Rowley brings this action derivatively alleging that the director defendants supposedly breached their fiduciary duties by allegedly allowing the Company to make false statements. The Complaint seeks declaratory relief, unspecified monetary damages, corrective corporate governance actions, and attorney's fees and costs. We believe that the claims are frivolous, meritless and that the Company and the individual defendants have substantial legal and factual defenses to the claims. We intend to vigorously defend the Company and the individual defendants against such claims. On September 13, 2019, the Court ordered the litigation stayed pursuant to a joint stipulation by the parties.

On January 15, 2020, Kevin Broccuto filed a shareholder derivative claim against the Company, the Company's then Chief Executive Officer, Henry Sicignano III, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, John T. Brodfuehrer, and certain members of the Company's prior Board of Directors in the District Court of the State of Nevada, County of Clark, entitled: Kevin Broccuto, derivatively on behalf of 22nd Century Group, Inc. v. James W. Cornell, Richard M. Sanders, Nora B. Sullivan, Henry Sicignano, III, and John T. Brodfuehrer, Case No. A-20-808599. Mr. Broccuto brings this action derivatively alleging three counts: Count I alleges that the defendants breached their fiduciary duties; Count II alleges they committed corporate waste; and Count III that they were unjustly enriched, by allegedly allowing the Company to make false statements. The Complaint seeks unspecified monetary damages, corrective corporate governance actions, disgorgement of alleged profits and imposition of constructive trusts, and attorney's fees and costs. We intend to vigorously defend the Company and the individual defendants against such claims.

On March 25, 2020, the Court ordered the Broccuto and Wayne cases consolidated and stayed pursuant to a joint stipulation from the parties.

Shareholder Derivative Demand

On February 19, 2019, the Company received a demand letter from attorneys representing Van McClendon, a shareholder of the Company, in which Mr. McClendon demanded that the Company's Board of Directors take action to pursue certain purported causes of action on behalf of the Company to remedy alleged breaches of fiduciary duties by each of the members of the Company's Board of Directors, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Henry Sicignano III, and the Company's Chief Financial Officer, John T. Brodfuehrer. On February 28, 2019, the Board appointed a Special Committee of independent directors and instructed the Committee to assess whether pursuing the claims detailed in the demand letter would be in the best interests of the Company. Subsequently, Mr. McClendon sold his shares and withdrew his demand. On May 7, 2019, after Mr. McClendon sold his shares, the Company received a similar demand letter from attorneys representing Jeremy Houck, a shareholder of the Company. Pursuant to the Board's instruction, the Special Committee completed an investigation of the claims detailed in Mr. Houck's demand letter. The Special Committee determined that pursuing such claims would not be in the best interest of the Company. On February 27, 2020, the Board of Directors adopted and approved the Special Committee's determination.

The OIP has a term of ten years and is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors to determine the various types of incentive awards that may be granted to recipients under the OIP and the number of shares of common stock to underlie each such award under the OIP. As of June 30, 2020, the Company had available 4,409,969 shares remaining for future awards under the OIP.

NOTE 13. – REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies a performance obligation by transferring control of the product to a customer. The Company's customer contracts consist of obligations to manufacture the customer's branded filtered cigars and cigarettes. For certain contracts, the performance obligation is satisfied over time as the Company determines, due to contract restrictions, it does not have an alternative use of the product, and it has an enforceable right to payment as the product is manufactured. The Company recognizes revenue under those contracts at the unit price stated in the contract based on the units manufactured. Revenue from the sale of the Company's products is recognized net of cash discounts, sales returns and allowances. There was no allowance for discounts or returns and allowances at June 30, 2020 and December 31, 2019.

Contract Assets and Liabilities

Unbilled receivables (contract assets) represent revenues recognized for performance obligations that have been satisfied but have not been billed. These receivables are included as Accounts receivable, net on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Customer payment terms vary depending on the terms of each customer contract, but payment is generally due prior to product shipment or within extended credit terms up to twenty-one (21) days after shipment. Deferred Revenue (contract liabilities) relate to down payments received from customers in advance of satisfying a performance obligation. This deferred revenue is included as Deferred income on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Total contract assets and contract liabilities are as follows:

	June 30, 2020	December 31, 2019
Unbilled receivables	$ 164	$ 406
Deferred Revenue	—	5
Net contract assets	$ 164	$ 401

Disaggregation of Revenue

The Company's net sales revenue is derived from customers located primarily in the United States of America and is disaggregated by the timing of revenue recognition—net sales transferred over time and net sales transferred at a point in time. All revenue is related to contract manufacturing.

Overview

We are a plant biotechnology company focused on technology that allows us to alter the level of nicotine and other nicotinic alkaloids in tobacco plants and the levels of cannabinoids in hemp/cannabis plants through genetic engineering and modern plant breeding techniques. Our mission in tobacco is to reduce the harm caused by smoking by introducing adult smokers to our proprietary, Very Low Nicotine Content (“VLNC”) tobacco and cigarette products. Our mission in hemp/cannabis is to develop proprietary varieties of hemp with valuable cannabinoid profiles and other superior agronomic traits. We have a significant intellectual property portfolio of issued patents and patent applications relating to both tobacco and hemp/cannabis plants.

In tobacco, we have developed unique and proprietary bright and burley VLNC tobaccos that grow with at least 95% less nicotine than tobacco used in conventional cigarettes. In the year 2011, we developed our SPECTRUM® research cigarettes in collaboration with independent researchers and officials from the FDA, the National Institute on Drug Abuse (“NIDA”), which is part of the National Institutes of Health (“NIH”), the National Cancer Institute (“NCI”), and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (“CDC”). Since 2011, we have provided more than 28 million variable nicotine research cigarettes for use in numerous independent clinical studies with agencies of the United States federal government investing more than $125 million in such independent clinical studies. The results of these independent clinical studies have been published in peer-reviewed publications (including the New England Journal of Medicine, the Journal of the American Medical Association, and many others). Our VLNC tobaccos have been associated with reductions in smoking, nicotine exposure and nicotine dependence with little to no evidence of compensatory smoking and without serious adverse events. A list of completed and published clinical studies using cigarettes made with our VLNC tobaccos is shown on our website at <https://www.xxiiicentury.com/vln-clinical-studies/published-clinical-studies-on-very-low-nicotine-content-vlnc-cigarettes>. A list of on-going clinical studies using our SPECTRUM® research cigarettes is shown on our website at <https://www.xxiiicentury.com/vln-clinical-studies/on-going-clinical-studies-on-very-low-nicotine-content-vlnc-cigarettes>. We do not incorporate third party studies or the information on our website into this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

In hemp, we are developing proprietary hemp varieties with increased levels of certain cannabinoids and other desirable agronomic traits with the goal of generating new and valuable intellectual property and plant lines. Our activities in the United States involve only work with legal hemp in full compliance with U.S. federal and state laws. The hemp plant and the marijuana plant are both part of the same cannabis genus of plant, except that hemp has not more than 0.3% dry weight content of delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol (“THC”). The federal Agricultural Improvement Act of 2018 (the “2018 Farm Bill”) legalized hemp and cannabinoids extracted from hemp in the U.S. but such extracts remain subject to state laws and regulation by other U.S. federal agencies, such as the FDA and the U.S. Department of Agriculture (“USDA”). The same plant, with a higher THC content is marijuana, which is legal under certain state laws, but which is currently not legal under U.S. federal law. The similarities between these plants can cause confusion. To reflect this difference in law, sometimes we refer to legal hemp and the legal hemp industry as hemp/cannabis to distinguish this as being separate and apart from marijuana/cannabis which is not legal under U.S. federal law. Our activities with legal hemp have sometimes been incorrectly perceived as us being involved in federally illegal marijuana/cannabis. This is not the case. In the United States, we work only with legal hemp in full compliance with federal and state laws.

Additional information about our business and operations is contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019.

COVID-19 Pandemic

The COVID-19 pandemic has caused some disruption to our business and poses a risk to our future business, including delays by third party providers of goods or services to our business, interruptions to our sales, research and development, and administrative activities, and disruptions to our manufacturing operations. Similarly, state or federal authorities may also be affected in their capacity or capability to operate as normal and may impact the timeline of product authorizations which may disrupt our business plans.

Our Williamsville, NY corporate re-opened in June and our R&D laboratory in Buffalo, NY re-opened in May and are currently operating under strict safety protocols in accordance with New York State’s reopening guidelines. These protocols include physical distancing, mandatory face coverings, disinfection of surfaces, and other health and safety measures. We continue to encourage remote work arrangements by any and all employees where job duties permit. Although our laboratory in Buffalo reopened in May, some of our external research and development partners were either closed or operating on a modified or limited schedule during the height of the pandemic. The temporary closure of our laboratory and the interruption to our workflow related to COVID-19 have impacted our internal and external laboratory research operations. Our executive leadership team and staff are continuously monitoring this ever-evolving situation and its impacts on our business.

Our NASCO production facility in North Carolina remains open, having been classified as an essential business as it is part of the supply chain for grocery stores and convenience stores. Despite the pandemic, we have been able to fulfill sales orders in a timely manner. The safety and well-being of our employees remains a top priority and we to continue monitor and operate in line with local, state, and federal safety guidelines. An outbreak at our production facility, or disruption in our supply chain, could cause us to slow or temporarily cease our manufacturing operations.

We will continue to monitor the local, state and federal guidance regarding our business practices.

Second Quarter 2020 Business Highlights and Notable Events:

Key highlights for the second quarter 2020

- Net sales revenue increased 11% to $6.4 million dollars.
- Gross profit continues to show improvement year-over-year, demonstrating the success of targeted actions to improve margins and cost structure.
- Operating loss improved by approximately $276 thousand.
- Appointed a new CEO, James A. Mish and new CFO, John Franzino

On June 3, 2020, we announced James A. Mish as our new CEO, effective June 22. Mish brings executive leadership experience in science-driven organizations. His most recent professional experience includes the development, manufacturing, and commercialization of active pharmaceutical ingredients, including cannabinoids, and related consumer products. He has an outstanding track record of delivering profitable growth at both privately held and publicly traded companies.

We also announced John Franzino as our new CFO, effective June 3, 2020. John is an accomplished strategic financial executive with a track record of successful leadership in high-growth, highly regulated, consumer-facing industries including tobacco and alcoholic beverages.

During the quarter, the public comment period for our Modified Risk Tobacco Product (“MRTP”) Application for VLN® closed on May 18, 2020. The application requests a modified exposure marketing authorization from the FDA to market our reduced nicotine content tobacco cigarettes in the U.S. under the proposed brand name of VLN® with product labeling and advertising claims stating that VLN® has 95% less nicotine than conventional cigarettes as well as other claims related to reduced nicotine exposure. The closing of the public comment period is an important milestone in the FDA’s ongoing scientific review of our MRTP Application, which seeks permission to market our reduced nicotine content cigarettes to adult smokers with the aforementioned product claims.

On April 30, 2020, we announced that, in collaboration with our research partner North Carolina State University (“NCSU”), we had completed research field trials that have validated new non-GMO (genetically modified organism) methodologies for reducing nicotine in tobacco plants. The research was funded by us and was conducted by NCSU’s Department of Crop and Soil Science with project oversight provided by our R&D team. During the quarter, we also completed plantings of non-GMO VLNC tobacco plant lines for multi-site, field trials to optimize growing practices of our non-GMO, VLNC plant lines in anticipation of the commercialization of these new lines in the U.S. and internationally.

Despite the COVID-19 pandemic, we were able to complete a sizeable portion of our research and development program in hemp/cannabis and have recently sequenced more than 250 additional plant lines. We continue to expand our knowledge foundation and bolster the information in our proprietary hemp/cannabis bioinformatics platform. The data will help us analyze and advance our understanding of the hemp/cannabis plant and enable us to identify the genes and biosynthetic pathways responsible for the modulation and production of various cannabinoids and terpenes in the plant. Through this work, we have already identified several hemp/cannabis lines that exhibit distinctive levels of key cannabinoids, and the associated genetic markers that will allow us to breed stable plant lines for commercial use. Additional investigation and research will be carried out to understand the mechanisms behind these distinctive traits and to identify the candidates with the greatest commercial value.

Results of Operations

Dollar Amounts in Thousands ($000’s), except for per-share data

Three and Six Months Ended June 30, 2020 Compared to Three and Six Months Ended June 30, 2019

Revenue - Sale of products, net

	Quarter-to-Date		Year-to-Date
	June 30 2020	June 30 2019	June 30 2020	June 30 2019
Sale of products, net	$ 6,435	$ 5,815	$ 13,493	$ 12,109
Dollar Change from Prior Year	620		1,384
Percentage Change from Prior Year	10.7 %		11.4 %

The increase in sales revenue for the second quarter of 2020 was primarily the result of an increase in the sales of contract manufactured filtered cigars in the amount of approximately $800, which was driven by a mix of increased unit sales and price increases. This increase was offset by a $200 decline in contract manufactured cigarette sales. Year-to-date through June 30, 2020, sales of contract manufactured filtered cigars and cigarettes increased approximately $974 and $400, respectively, from the year-to-date period ended June 30, 2019 and were also influenced by higher sales and unit price increases.

Cost of goods sold - Products / Gross profit (loss)

Percent of Product Sales	3.1 %	(1.5)%	3.6 %	(1.6)%
Dollar Change from Prior Year	287		677

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, the change to a Gross profit from a Gross loss for the comparable prior year period was driven by lower Cost of goods sold. Cost of goods sold declined to 96.9% of revenue during the three months ended June 30, 2020 from 101.5% of revenue for the quarter ended June 30, 2019. Gross margin improvement during the quarter and year-to-date periods was the result of price increases and lower labor and overhead costs per unit driven by factory efficiencies implemented over the last six months.

Research and development expense

	Quarter-to-Date		Year-to-Date
	June 30 2020	June 30 2019	June 30 2020	June 30 2019

Dollar Change from Prior Year	(717)		(1,144)
Percentage Change from Prior Year	(42.8)%		(39.2)%

Lower R&D expense for the three months ended June 30, 2020 was driven by a $379 decrease in our R&D Personnel expense, and a $313 decrease in our R&D Contract costs compared to the three months ended June 30, 2019. Lower R&D expense for the six months ended June 30, 2020 was driven by a decrease in R&D Personnel expense of $618, and a decrease in R&D contract costs of $471 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2019. Lower R&D spending for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 is not reflective of a change in our R&D investment priorities.

Research and development expense - MRTP

	Quarter-to-Date		Year-to-Date

The increase in Sales, general and administrative (“SG&A”) expense during the three months ended June 30, 2020 was driven by a $497 increase in Consulting & Professional services expenses, a $428 increase in Insurance expenses, a $306 increase in Severance expense, and a $74 increase in accounting fees compared to the three months ended June 30, 2019. These increases were partially offset by a $200 decrease in legal fees, a $132 decrease in Investor Relations costs, a $91 decrease in SG&A Travel and Entertainment expenses. The year-to-date increase in SG&A expense through June 30, 2020 was driven by a $738 increase in Consulting & Professional services expenses, a $496 increase in SG&A Personnel expense, a $469 increase in Insurance expenses, and a $306 increase in one-time Severance expense. We have deployed this incremental SG&A spending to support our corporate management capabilities, and to evaluate and prepare for future opportunities. These increases were partially offset by a decrease in Investor Relations expenses of $121, a decrease in SG&A Travel and Entertainment expenses of $116, and a decrease in legal fees of $65 for the year-to-date period ended June 30, 2020 as compared to the same period in 2019.

The decrease in net loss for the three months ended June 30, 2020 compared to the same period during the prior year was primarily the result of an unrealized loss of $1,424 on our Aurora warrants during the three months ended June 30, 2019, which turned to an unrealized gain of $312 for the three months ended June 30, 2020, along with an increase in gross profit, lower total operating expenses, one-time Litigation Settlement expenses of $1,890 during the second quarter of 2019 which were not repeated in 2020, and the interest income associated with our convertible note and preferred stock investment in Panacea. The year-to-date reduction in the net loss was the result of improved gross profit, lower total operating expenses, and Panacea-related interest income. These impacts were somewhat offset by an impairment charge on our Panacea stock warrant in the amount of $1,062 (see Note 5), and a net unrealized loss on our Aurora warrants in the amount of in the amount of $133, which was an unrealized gain of $1,549 for the year-to-date period ended June 30, 2019.

Working Capital

As of June 30, 2020, we had working capital of approximately $29,974 compared to working capital of approximately $36,962 at December 31, 2019, a decrease of $6,765. This decrease in working capital was primarily due to a decrease in net current assets of approximately $6,449 as well as an increase in net current liabilities of approximately $539. Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investment securities decreased by approximately $10,015 and the remaining net current assets increased by approximately $3,566. We used approximately $11,473 of cash in operating activities during the six months ended June 30, 2020.

We must successfully execute our business strategy to achieve profitability and positive cash flows from operations. We believe that we have sufficient liquidity to fund our regular business activities for the foreseeable future.

We may contemplate additional financing to fund further acquisitions, investments in technology, brand development or other opportunities. While we do not have any immediate plans to raise capital at this time, we have filed a new S-3 shelf registration with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The new shelf registration will replace our previously expired shelf registration and should provide us flexibility and optionality to raise capital in order to make crucial investments, should compelling opportunities arise in the future.

Net cash used in operating activities

The increase of cash used in operations in the amount of $2,729 was due to an increase in cash used for working capital components related to operations in the amount of $4,780 that was partially offset by a decrease in the cash portion of the net loss in the amount of $2,051 for the six months ended June 30, 2020 as compared to the six months ended June 30, 2019. The increase in cash used for working capital components was primarily due to an increase in pre-paid D&O insurance in the amount of $2,515, of which $2,195 was financed by a note payable issuance described in the Net cash provided by (used in) financing activities section below.

Net cash provided by investing activities

The increase in cash provided by investing activities, in the amount of $765, was primarily the result of an increase in net cash provided from short-term investments account in the amount of $529 and a decrease in cash flows related to acquisition of Patents and trademarks and Machinery and equipment of in the net amount of $402. These increased cash inflows were partially offset by a decrease in proceeds from the sale of Machinery and equipment in the amount of $166 during the first half of 2020 as compared to the first half of 2019.

Net cash provided by (used in) financing activities

During the six months ended June 30, 2020, cash provided by financing activities was $1,653 resulting from a note payable issuance of $2,195 which was offset by principal payments on our notes payable of $542. During the six months ended June 30, 2019, cash used in financing activities was $400 resulting from a principal payment on our note payables.
